

NH. 675.

Scottish Amicable Life Assurance Society.

THIS OLD AND WEALTHY CORPORATION is founded on the Mutual principle, according to which the Whole of the Profits belong to the Assured. As a consequence of this, large Additions have been declared at the successive Investigations which have been made into the Society's affairs; the rates of Bonus having ranged from $1\frac{1}{2}$ to 2 per cent. per annum, calculated not only on the Original Sums Assured, but also on the previous Bonus Additions. It likewise makes a Prospective (or intermediate) Bonus Addition to participating Policies which become Claims during the currency of a Septennium, thus securing to its members all the advantages of an Annual Division of Profits without any of its disadvantages.

The last Investigation into the Society's affairs took place at 31st Dec., 1867, and the following Table shows the Bonus Additions then actually declared on Policies of £1,000, and Policies for larger or smaller amounts being, of course, increased in proportion.

MINIMUM PREMIUMS.

THE SCOTTISH AMICABLE holds out a special attraction to the Public in its popular system of "MINIMUM PREMIUMS." This scheme was originated by the late respected Manager of the Society, WILLIAM SPENS, and is undoubtedly the most economical adaptation of Life Assurance yet devised. It was introduced in 1854, with the sole object of giving to the provident classes the largest possible Assurance for the smallest possible Premium, and to do this without having recourse to what is called the "half-credit system," or other similar inventions, which frequently prove the reverse of benefits to the Assurer. A popular exposition of the Minimum Premium system is—

That a rate of Bonus Addition is assumed as that which will, at least, be realized in the future, so that a person just assuring gets the IMMEDIATE BENEFIT of this prospective Addition by having it applied to the reduction of the Premium from the opening of the Policy, instead of having to wait until the successive periods of division arrive, when Additions to the sum assured would be made.

FOREIGN RESIDENCE.

The Society has, from time to time, made improvements in its practice, and it offers to the Public in this respect all the advantages which the most approved system of Life Assurance can confer. By an important General Resolution, adopted in 1861, the Assured are now entitled—after remaining five consecutive years within the home limits—to travel or reside in any part of the world without payment of extra Premium.

Forms of Proposal and Tables of Rates for all descriptions of Life Assurance may be obtained on application.

THE QUEEN INSURANCE COMPANY is founded on principles which render Policy-holders perfectly secure, and afford them at the same time many special advantages, some of which are explained below.

(For information in reference to the financial and other affairs of the Company, see statement on last Page of the Directory).

IMPORTANT ADVANTAGES.

LIFE POLICIES GRANTED ON A SPECIAL REDUCED SYSTEM.—In order to meet the views of persons desirous of effecting Insurances for the whole term of life, who find it inconvenient at first to pay the full Premium, this Company has adopted the undernoted special scheme, whereby the Premiums payable for the first five years will be found unusually moderate, while the Policy, at the end of that period, is entirely free from debt, thus avoiding the evil of the half credit system. Under this Table persons may take out Policies at earlier ages, and at lower rates, than they could do under the ordinary system. An additional and most important advantage is thus afforded to the public, by which they are enabled to insure while young, whereas, if they were to defer doing so until they could pay the full ordinary Premium, sickness or ill health might overtake them, and render them unassurable lives.

NON-FORFEITURE OF POLICIES BY THE ISSUE OF FREE PAID-UP POLICIES.—If a person, after having been assured for three years under the ordinary Whole Life Scale, at any age up to and inclusive of fifty-five, should wish to discontinue paying his premiums, the Directors will issue a Policy for the amount of Premiums paid, together with any Bonus that may have been added, and free from any further payment whatever. This feature secures not only a provision in the event of premature death, but a remedy—long desired—should the payment of the Premium become an inconvenience.

HALF-CREDIT SYSTEM.—Half of the Premiums may remain on Credit for five years at 5 per cent. Interest, on Policies for the whole term of Life.

POLICIES INDISPUTABLE AFTER BEING FIVE YEARS IN FORCE.—All ordinary Queen Policies, without exception, on which the age of the assured has been admitted, will at the end of five years from their date, be absolutely indisputable, the only condition being the punctual payment of the Premiums with any extra Premium that may be exigible for foreign residence in cases where the whole world licence may not have been obtained.

EQUITABLE CONDITIONS OF POLICIES—MODERATE PREMIUMS (with the option of paying them according to a variety of convenient methods)—Liberal provision for the non-forfeiture or surrender of Policies—and certain specially beneficial arrangements as to the reception of the Bonuses—are some of the many advantages of the Life Scheme of this Company.

LIFE BONUS.—At last valuation (1868), a Bonus was declared to Participating Life Policy holders, averaging 40 per cent. of the Premiums paid by the Assured.

The Company transacts all kinds of Home and Foreign Fire and Life Insurance Business. Annuities, Endowments, Reversions, etc., at Moderate Rates, and on terms as Liberal as those of other first-class Offices.

ALL LOSSES SETTLED WITH PROMPTITUDE AND LIBERALITY.

The Directors invite application for Agencies to be made to the Resident Scottish Managers, Glasgow.

THE Publishers of the Post-Office Glasgow Directory, in issuing the forty-third edition, beg to express their gratitude for the liberal patronage hitherto bestowed on the publication. It has always been their desire that the information it contained should keep pace with the commercial progress and general requirements of the City, with whose growth it has grown; and they trust that their efforts this year have been so far successful. No trouble has been spared to render it as accurate and complete as possible.

The annexed plan of the city, specially prepared by J. Bartholomew, F.R.G.S., has been revised to date; and besides the extensive additions made to it last year, there has also been added a considerable extension to the south, comprising seven and a half square miles, which includes the whole of the Queen's Park and surrounding suburbs, reaching to Rutherglen, Langside, Crossmyloof, Pollokshaws, &c.

The nomenclature of the streets has also been improved and extended, greatly enhancing the value of the Directory.

MANDATE. See PROXY.

MARRIAGE CONTRACT. The leading head under which marriage contracts are chargeable is SETTLEMENT. Instruments, containing settlements of lands, property, or other thing, besides settlement of money or stock, are chargeable with duty in respect of such, as if contained in a separate deed. A marriage contract may therefore be liable to different duties. If definite sums, and stocks, are settled so as to give an interest to any extent which shall certainly take effect, these are liable to the ad valorem Settlement Duty. If an annuity is provided to widows or others, it is liable to the Bond of Annuity Duty. Obligations to pay sums to widow, as for mournings, are liable to the ad valorem Bond Duty. All settlements of property, or other matters not liable to specific duty, will be covered by one general deed duty, over and above the other duties. An obligation by husband, to pay sums to trustees for children, if any, would be liable to the Bond Duty, not Settlement Duty, being contingent. The stamp duty of 5s., imposed by 55 Geo. III. c. 184, on a certificate of marriage, and on a certificate of reception of the Holy Sacrament, is repealed by the 28 and 29 Vict. c. 96, § 21.

WRIT of Clare Constat. See PRECEPT OF CLARE CONSTAT.

INVENTORY DUTY.

I. PERSONAL ESTATE:—

Every person who shall, as executor or otherwise, enter upon possession or management of a personal or movable estate in Scotland of any deceased person, in whole or in part, shall, within six months, exhibit upon oath in the Commissary Court an inventory, duly stamped, of all the personal or movable estate and effects of the deceased. The inventory and testamentary writings left by the deceased, if any, shall be recorded in the books of the court (48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38).

Inventories and relative testamentary writings are to be given up and recorded in, and confirmations granted by, the Commissary Court of the county wherein the deceased died domiciled; and in the case of persons dying forth of Scotland, or without any known domicile, having personal property in Scotland, the Commissary Court of Edinburgh. (21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, § § 3 and 8.)

Oaths and affirmations on inventories of personal estates, to be given up and recorded in any Commissary Court, may be taken before the commissary or his depute, the commissary-clerk or his deputy, any commissioner appointed by the commissary, or any magistrate or justice of the peace within the United Kingdom or the Colonies, or any British consul. (21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, § 11.)

If the deceased person died domiciled in Scotland, it shall be competent to include in the inventory of the personal estate in Scotland, the personal estate in England and Ireland. The estate in England and Ireland shall be separately stated in the inventory, and the inventory shall be stamped according to the entire value of the estate situated within the United Kingdom. If confirmation be required, the domicile must be proved to be in Scotland; and to give title to the English and Irish property, the confirmation must be sealed in the Principal Probate Court in England and the Probate Court in Dublin. (21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, § § 9, 12, and 13.)

The provisions of the Act are merely permissive. It is therefore still competent to pay duty on the estate in Scotland, and probate or administration duty in respect of the estate in England and Ireland. In the case of a person dying domiciled forth of the United Kingdom having personal estate in Scotland, this mode of paying the duty must be followed, as there is no provision for payment of duty, in respect of the personal estate in England or Ireland, on the inventory or confirmation.

If there be any omission in the inventory inferring payment of further duty, an additional inventory is required to be exhibited by 48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38; and § 40 provides that it shall specify the value of the estate and effects in the former inventory. By 16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 8, such additional inventory shall be chargeable only with such duty as, with the duty charged upon the former duly stamped inventory, shall make up the full duty, in respect of the total amount of all the estate and effects of the deceased specified in the additional and former inventory. If the estate be over estimated, or something improperly included, an inventory on a stamp corresponding to the value must be exhibited, and the original inventory will be allowed on affidavit as a spoiled stamp, within six months of the recording of the second inventory.

Personal estate which a person dying shall dispose of by will, under authority to dispose of the same as he shall think fit, shall be deemed personal or movable estate of the person so dying, for the purpose of payment of inventory, probate, or administration duty (23 Vict. c. 15, § 4). The duties are to be charged on the property, in respect of which they are payable, and to be paid by the trustees or owners to the executor.

By the 27 and 28 Vict. c. 56, § § 4, 5, British ships at sea, or elsewhere out of the United Kingdom, are property of the deceased at the Port of Registry for payment of Inventory Duty.

Indian Government Promissory Notes, and certificates issued, or stock in lieu thereof, being assets of a deceased person, the interest of which shall be payable in London, registered in London, or enfaced in India for such registration before the death of the owner; also Indian Government Promissory Notes, with coupons attached, in the same circumstances as to registration, and certificates issued, or stock created in lieu thereof, shall be personal estate, and bona notabilia in England of the deceased (23 Vict. c. 5, § 1); also any ship or share of a ship belonging to a person deceased, registered in the United Kingdom, although such ship may at the time of the decease have been at sea or out of the United Kingdom, shall be deemed to be at the port where registered (27 and 28 Vict. c. 56), and liable to inventory, probate, or administration duty.

"The inventory and additional inventory of any person deceased, required to be exhibited and recorded in Scotland, shall be stamped with duty according to the value of the property at the time they shall be sworn to, including the proceeds accrued to that time; and the duty, or deficient duty, according to such value and proceeds, and interest thereon at the rate of five per cent., shall be a debt to Her Majesty by the person making oath to said inventory and additional inventory, and his heirs and successors; and if such inventory and additional inventory shall not be exhibited and recorded, the inventory duty on all the personal or movable estate and effects of the deceased, and interest thereon at the rate of five per cent. from the expiry of six months after the death of such deceased person, shall be a debt to Her Majesty by the person who shall intromit with such personal or movable estate and effects, or any part thereof, and his heirs and successors." (23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, § 5.)

II. HERITABLE SECURITIES.

The Act 31 and 32 Vict. c. 101, § 117, makes heritable securities movable as regards succession in the creditor from and after 31st December, 1868, and this whether the security shall have been granted before or after that date. These securities will therefore, after the above date, be liable to Inventory Duty the same as other movable property, and should be included in the inventory of the personal estate. Such securities will still be money secured on heritage; and in so far as they may not come under the statutory provisions applicable to personal property, the Acts 23 Vict. c. 15, and 23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, will apply to them. The mode of payment of duty by special inventory, as provided in 23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, will not be competent in so far as they are movable property, and come under the statutes applicable to personal property. The Act 23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, will still apply to heritable securities, excluding executors, which are by the above section of 31 and 32 Vict. c. 101, to remain heritable, and also to personal bonds, excluding executors.

III. GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

In the case of a person dying domiciled in Scotland, having personal property in Scotland, England, and Ireland, and money secured on heritage, &c., duty in respect of the whole may be paid on the inventory recorded in the Commissary Court; or inventory duty may be paid on the personal property in Scotland, and duty may be paid on a "special inventory" of the money secured on the heritage, &c., and probate or administration may be obtained in England and Ireland in respect of the personal estate in these countries, and duty paid in respect of such on these instruments.

In respect of a person dying domiciled furth of the United Kingdom leaving personal estate in Scotland, England, and Ireland, an inventory must be given up in Scotland, probate or administration taken out in England and Ireland, and duty paid on such in respect of the property in each country. For probate and administration duty, debts and money due from persons in the United Kingdom to a deceased, on obligation or other specialty, shall be estate and effects of deceased, within the jurisdiction of the Court of Probate in England or Ireland, in which the same would be if they were debts upon simple contract, without regard to the place where the obligation or specialty shall be at the time of the death (25 Vict. c. 22, § 30.)

RETURN OF INVENTORY DUTY:

The inventory duty and probate and administration duty are paid on the whole personal property, without deduction of debts; but the Act 5 and 6 Vict. c. 79, § 23, provides for a return being given on proof of the constitution and payment of the debts. This return must be claimed within three years; but the time will be prolonged on application to the Board of Inland Revenue. No return will be granted in respect of a voluntary debt due from a person dying after 28th June, 1861, expressed to be payable on the death of such person, or payable under an instrument which shall not have been bona fide delivered to the donee three months before the death of such person. (24 and 25 Vict. c. 92, § 3.)

This duty is payable for every legacy out of the movable estate, or out of or charged upon the heritable estate of the deceased, or out of any estate which he has power to dispose of, or out of any moneys to arise by the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the deceased's heritable estate. Also for the clear residue (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first payable thereout) of the movable estate, whether the title to such residue shall accrue by virtue of Duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee take two or more legacies, which shall together amount to £20, each shall be charged with duty.

SUCCESSION DUTY (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51).—This duty commenced on the death of persons after the 19th May, 1853, and seems to be imposed on all property, heritable and movable, passing by death, not liable to the duty on legacies and successions to personal estate upon intestacy, imposed by the Legacy Duty Acts.

The duty on HERITABLE PROPERTY is charged on the annual value, after allowance of the necessary outgoing (§ 22), as an annuity for the life of the successor (§ 21), which is to be valued by tables annexed to the Act.

If not made within that time the claim will be forfeited.

The stamps, if belonging to persons in Edinburgh, or within ten miles of it, must be presented for allowance within six months after being signed in the case of executed instruments, and six months after being spoiled in the case of unexecuted instruments. If the stamps belong to persons beyond that distance, they must be presented within six months in the former, and twelve months in the latter case.

Bills and notes delivered to payees, or negotiated or issued in any way, and bills accepted or tendered for acceptance, cannot be exchanged, unless a new bill be produced, in all respects the same, excepting the correction of the error.

As to the exchange of sea policies of insurance, see 30 Vict. cap. 23, § 17. The cases for allowance are:—

1. Where policy shall be inadvertently filled up in an incorrect or improper manner.

2. Or be obliterated or otherwise spoiled and rendered unfit for use.

3. Or shall be filled up for some insurance which shall not be proceeded in, and the same shall not be signed by any underwriter, but in no other case. Application must be made within six months after the policy shall be spoiled or become useless.

Unsigned instruments are allowed, if inadvertently spoiled: signed, if void in law from the beginning; from error or mistake, unfit for the purpose originally intended; from death or refusal to sign of any person whose signature is necessary; from want of the signature of some necessary party; from refusal to act under, or from non-acceptance; or if the transaction be carried through by another instrument duly stamped.—(See 53 Geo. III. c. 108.) In the case of transfers of stock signed by seller alone, and other instruments by one party, new deeds must be produced to the proper officer, who, as to transfers, is instructed to certify in what particulars they differ from those spoiled.

Stamps of a different description may be obtained for any stamp spoiled if it be of the value of £6 or upwards. Applications for this purpose to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue should be lodged with the affidavit. The Commissioners, by 3rd and 4th Will. IV. c. 97, s. 19, may refund, in money, the amount of spoiled stamps. They are also authorized to repay the amount of stamps for which the possessor has no immediate use, if applied for within three months after purchase. In both cases the percentage allowed by law on the purchase is deducted.

STAMPING DEEDS AFTER BEING SIGNED.

Beyond Twelve Months.—The deed will only be stamped on payment of the whole duty, or the deficiency of duty remaining payable on it, and a penalty of £10; and if the duty or deficiency exceed £10, then, in addition to the duty and penalty, there shall be paid interest on the duty or deficiency at the rate of 5 per cent. from the date or first signing of the deed; but such interest shall not exceed the amount of the duty or deficiency of duty.

Within Twelve Months.—If the deed be brought to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue within twelve months after the first signing or executing, it may be stamped without payment of the penalty, or on payment of a portion thereof, provided it be proved that the deed was not duly stamped previously to being signed, by accident, mistake, inadvertency, or urgent necessity, and without any wilful design to evade or delay the payment of duty (13 and 14 Vict. c. 97, § 12).

Abroad.—If the deed be executed abroad, it may be stamped without penalty, within two calendar months from being received in the kingdom, upon proof of the facts (13 and 14 Vict. c. 97, § 12).

Adhesive Stamps.—Where adhesive stamp may be affixed to any instrument, an officer of Inland Revenue, authorized by the Commissioners, may affix and cancel the adhesive stamp. The instrument shall thereupon be deemed sufficiently stamped. But this not to apply to instruments not allowed to be stamped after being signed, or issued, nor to instruments after the expiration of the period limited for stamping them. The penalty required to be paid on stamping of the instrument is not affected by this provision (24 and 25 Vict. c. 91, § 32).

[Instruments to have stamps impressed are received at the Cashier's Office, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh, to be stamped, if within two months of the first date (the Solicitor may in certain circumstances receive them within two months of the last date), on payment of the duty; if beyond that date, on payment of the duty and penalty. Persons applying will be furnished with a schedule, which after being filled up, is to be presented, with the instrument, at the Cashier's Office, No. 3, Inland Revenue. The amount of duty sought to be impressed is to be inserted in the schedule by the applicant before being presented, and the duty is to be paid at the time of the application. As to stamping agreements and charter-parties, see Notes under these heads.]

DOUBTS AS TO THE SUFFICIENCY OF STAMPS MAY BE REMOVED.

The opinion of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue as to the duty with which a deed, previously stamped or otherwise, is chargeable, may be obtained on the deed being presented, and a fee of 10s. paid. The duty or insufficient duty which the Commissioners may assess, and the penalty, if any, being paid, they stamp the deed with the duty so paid, and thereupon, and also in case of the deed being previously sufficiently stamped, impress the deed with a particular stamp for the purpose. The deed shall then be received in evidence, notwithstanding any objection to it as insufficiently stamped. The provision does not apply to bonds or mortgages for unlimited amounts, nor to instruments after being signed, prohibited from being stamped. On the stamp duties assessed being paid, and 40s. for costs being deposited, the opinion of the Commissioners may be appealed against to the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, if the deed has been presented for the opinion of the Commissioners at their office in Edinburgh; to the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, if the deed has been presented at London; to the Court of Exchequer in Ireland, if the deed has been presented in Dublin. (13 and 14 Vict. c. 97, §§ 14, 15; 28 and 29 Vict. c. 96, § 22.) The Commissioners may also adjudge on deeds not liable to any duty; and if duty is assessed the party may appeal (16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 13.)

[Instruments are received for adjudication at the Solicitor's Office, Inland Revenue Office, Edinburgh, on the same conditions as to duty and penalty as instruments to be stamped merely. The sum of 10s. for the adjudication stamp is first to be paid to the Cashier, No. 3, Lobby. Then the schedule (the duty to be impressed not being inserted), the instrument after execution, and a copy of it, written on foolscap paper, omitting the bounding descriptions of lands, &c., and having appended to it a table giving the substance of the provisions, particularly dates and sums, and a reference to the page of the copy on which each commences, are to be left at the Solicitor's Office, No. 5, on Mondays and Wednesdays, between 10 and 12 o'clock. Between 10 and 12 o'clock on Thursday following, a person, who can give explanation, must call on the chief clerk of the Solicitor's Department, No. 6; and he should be prepared to pay the proper duty, and penalty, if any, to the Cashier, No. 3, Lobby.]

DUPLICATES OR COUNTERPARTS.

Duplicates or counterparts of instruments requiring to be impressed with the denoting stamp to render them valid, may be lodged at the Solicitor's Office, No. 5, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh, between 10 and 12 o'clock on Mondays and Wednesdays. The principal instrument, as well as the duplicate, must be lodged, and both must appear to be properly stamped, otherwise they will not be transmitted.
